

SAMAR CHARITABLE TRUST

NEWSLETTER

"YOUTHS ARE HARBINGER OF CHANGE"

JASHN E BACHPAN: NUKKAD NATAK IN PATNA

We have been working with children in slums on Theatre in Education for three years now. Children of Ambedkar Nagar, Adalatganj and Umang Sneh Ghar, Rainbow went through rigorous training for over 9 months and prepared plays on the issues concerning them. It was performed at Gandhi Maidan as Nukkad Natak. Around 200 people watched the play, which explored themes of Environment, Health, Child Marriage, and Mobile Usage.

ESSAY COMPETITION IN THE LIBRARY

To encourage youths to participate in discussions and debates, an Essay Competition was held at the Kishori Sharan Singh Memorial Library located in Painal, Bihta. The topic given to the students was "Right to Education". Kunal Kumar bagged the first place, whereas Prince Kumar came second, and Kundan Kumar got third place. We will continue to organise these activities regularly in the library.

LIBRARY IN GAYA COMPLETES THIRD YEAR

On 2nd October, Ikra Library in Bara, Chakand, Gaya, run by B.R.D.O and Samar Charitable Trust, completes three successful years.

In these three years, the students of the library have achieved remarkable milestones. Many have secured excellent ranks in board examinations, while others have succeeded in competitive exams.

Ikra Library now stands as a shining example of dedication, hard work, and the promise of a bright future for children.

PLANTATION DRIVE IN MADRASA!

A plantation drive was organised at Madrasa Darul Uloom Andwas, where discussions were also held with children on the importance of trees. It was also observed that in many places, children do not have access to four-lined English notebooks, which is affecting their handwriting. For the time being, we have provided them with printouts so that they can continue their practice without interruption.

8969333114

samarpatna@gmail.com

Zaffar Colony, Sabajpura, Phulwari Sharif, Patna, Pincode:- 801505